SLAVS DESTROY A MONUMENT

(Correspondence Associated Press)

SARAJEVO, Bosnia, July 10.—The Slavs have torn down the beautiful monument of granite and bronze which the Austrians erected to the memories of Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife, Sophia, Duchess of Hohenberg, which stood at a corner of the bridge here where their assassination by Princip furnished the spark that set off the world war.
It bore a bronze plaque showing the figures of both Ferdinand and Sophia.

Now that Donja-Horogovina has passed from the rule of Austria and become a part of the kingdom of Serbia, Croats and Slovenes, the parts of the monument have been stored in the Museum of Sarajevo. When the curator has time they will be assembled for the edification of the students of history and to satisfy the curiosity of sightseers.

Sarajevo seems almost to have forgotten the bomb-throwing and as well on its way toward making "business as usual." As a demoralized soldier said, "We're all sick of the war business." But the mixed population and the undertone of suspense for Austria lead one to wonder what may happen in the generation after that of Princip.

BERLIN MUST GRANT
BONUSES TO WORKERS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 23.—The Prussian railroad minister, Herr Oeser, told the diet the other day that the wage scale of the railroad men must be altered, but not at present. Prussia, therefore, must for the time being continue to force down the food prices and grant bonuses to the railroad workers.

NO MORE MULES FOR BELMONT

(Correspondence Associated Press)

The Tonopah Belmont Development company has decided to do away with the mules which have been of such valuable service in hauling ore trains on the 1000 level.
The animals will be replaced by an up-to-date electric haulage system similar to that employed on the West End between the main shaft on Edwards street and the Ohio workings. The Belmont has placed a contract for an electric locomotive and the installation of the system will begin as soon as labor troubles are adjusted so that electricians will work in the mine.

The Belmont has the distinction of being the only mine in Nevada using animal power in tramming.
The change was made about five years ago when the first mule was lowered down the shaft. A stable was hewn in the rock, electric lights put in and the animal provided with all the comforts of a home on the upper crust of the earth. The experiment proved so successful that the number of animals increased until twelve were in the lower regions when the strike order took effect.
The mules were blindfolded in hauling them out and will be introduced to day light gradually so their eyes will not be impaired by sunshine.

A Moving Tale.

A Yarmouth port butcher notified his customers that he had sold out by hanging in his window a pig's tail with a card bearing the words: "This is the end of our pork this week."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

President Carranza will tell us on September 1st just what he is going to do about it. That is, what he says he is going to do about it.

WHY THE WORLD HATED THE HUN

(Correspondence Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 25.—The reason why the whole world rose up against Prussia and Germany and not against England is plain to everyone who had observed the Prussian policy in Poland and the Prussian administration in Alsace," asserts Prof. F. W. Foerster of the University of Munich, writing in the Tagblatt.

"England practiced much might to be sure, but it has also given the world much freedom and justice," he added. "She succeeded in reconciling the Boers whereas we were impaled in forty years to remain the symbol of the Abattoirs who are continued to the core. That speaks volumes."

"The isolation of Germany from Hague conferences is irrefutable proof in dominating circles that Germany is possessed of different mentality than the rest of the world." He charges Germany with having acted in the exchange of the Versailles notes on the question of guilt and states that many unneeded accusations might have been rebutted more effectively if Germany had not shown endeavor to defend unen-dowed positions with rank sophistries.

To Remove Rust.

Steel needles which had been put away in a box for some time had a number of rusty spots on them, so were wiped first with kerosene, then pumice stone and rubbed with it a few times and they were as smooth as when first made. The rust was left.
